Changes to U.S. Lineup Announced for the 37th Annual Capital Classic American University to Host Game April 15th

Washington, D.C. (April 7, 2010) – Corrigan Sports Enterprises (CSE) and Sports America, Inc. announced changes to the U.S. roster for the 37th Capital Classic today. Presented by Bart & Associates the annual high school boy's basketball All-Star game, set for Thursday, April 15, 2010 at American University, pits the nation's top senior prospects versus the D.C. area's elite seniors. The game is the longest running high school basketball All-Star contest in the country.

Haukur Palsson (F/6'6"/Montverde Academy (Fla.)/Maryland) will replace future Terp teammate Mychal Parker (SF/6'-6"/The Miller School/Richmond, VA) in the U.S. lineup. Palsson averaged 10 points and 6 rebounds for Coach Kevin Sutton this season and was named All-Tournament at the Nordic Championships in 2008 and 2009.

Parker and Joe Jackson (G/6'/White Station HS (TN)/Memphis) will not attend due to schedule conflicts. Marcus Thornton (PF/ 6'8"/ Westlake H.S./Clemson) will be unable to play due to injury.

The Capital team remains unchanged.

From its prominent beginning in 1974, the Capital Classic has introduced fans to the next generation of superstars. The greats, including Moses Malone, Michael Jordan, Patrick Ewing, Magic Johnson and Dominique Wilkins have all participated in the Capital Classic, as well as the new age All-Stars of LeBron James, Chris Paul and Carmelo Anthony.

Tip-off is set for 8 p.m. and the game will be preceded by a 6 p.m. contest featuring District All-Stars versus Suburban All-Stars. The 2010 Capital, District and Suburban rosters will be announced on Tuesday, March 23rd.

Tickets can be purchased through Ticketmaster at (202) 397-SEAT or ticketmaster.com. More information is available online at www.TheCapitalClassic.com.
